

Library List by Categories
Updated 3/25/2011

Academic Intervention

40 Intervention Strategies for K-6 Students

This book is perfect for teachers who are looking for more information on teaching the key elements of literacy and supporting students' literacy needs. Provides key research background on each element and then offers teachers detailed strategies to support students.

Adapting Reading and Math Materials for the Inclusive Classroom Volume 2 K-5th Grade

This book was designed to fill the gap for educators who are already engaged in curriculum adaptations as well as those who have yet begun. It will outline conceptual strategies behind instruction adaptations. Present characteristics of classroom materials that allow for effective adaptations.

Adapting Language Art, Social Studies, and Science Materials for the Inclusive Classroom 6th through 8th Grade

This book was designed to fill the gap for educators who are already engaged in curriculum adaptations as well as those who have yet begun. It will outline conceptual strategies behind instruction adaptations. Present characteristics of classroom materials that allow for effective adaptations.

ATTENTION PLEASE! How to make speaking in class presentable, enjoyable and memorable for all

This easy-to-follow book helps you create in-class presentations that are engaging and worthwhile for you and your audience. Learn how to make presentations meaningful by deciding what you want to say, why you want to say it and how to do so in ways that arrest the attention of your audience and keep them involved until the very end

Building Adolescent Readers

Kelly's new video set brings effective reading strategies to life. Presenting examples of both small- and whole-group discussions, it demonstrates how to engage students with a variety of texts, teaching them what it means to be a good reader.

Classrooms That Work: They Can All Read and Write

Contains positive resources with practical ideas, activities, and organizational strategies that would result in teachers saying "I can do that-I see how that would help and fit in with what I currently do."

COMPREHENDING CONTENT Reading Across the Curriculum Grades 6-12

High School teacher Cris Tovani brings viewers into her school and classroom and shows how she and her colleagues are meeting challenge of improving students' reading skills across the curriculum. The programs include examples of Cris working with students using texts from multiple disciplines in her classroom, as well as collaborating with colleagues throughout the school.

Create a Kidspiration K-5

Use dynamic tools and features to design learning activities for your students. Nearly 100 templates are provided on the accompanying CD.

Differentiating Textbooks – Strategies to Improve Student Comprehension & Motivation

Find out how to motivate your students as they are confronted with text that is generally written in a less-than- engaging expository style. This book shows you how to teach the child, not the textbook, and as with differentiated instruction, you will soon discover that this approach is "just part of good teaching."

DRAMA Schemes, Themes & Dreams – How to plan, structure, and assess classroom events that engage all learners

This book offers a comprehensive outline of improvisation and interpretation strategies that teachers can incorporate in classroom instruction.

Eyewitness To The Past strategies for Teaching American History in Grades 5-12

Examines six types of primary sources: diaries, travelogues, letters, news articles, election speeches, and scrapbooks. Teachers will find interactive strategies to help students analyze the unique properties of each and then create their own written work and oral arguments.

ESSAY WRITING teaching the basic from the ground up

This practical book gives teachers the basic background and experience-based advice they need to help students write essays they care about. Rooted in classroom experience it offers a wealth of samples from real classrooms, along with handy reproducibles that encourage better, more focused essays.

I Read It, But I don't Get It Comprehension Strategies for Adolescent Readers

A practical, engaging account of how teachers can help adolescents develop new reading comprehension skills.

Life Skills Activities for Secondary Students with Special Needs

Includes 190 ready-to-use lessons with reproducible worksheets to help children develop the basic skills necessary to experience independence and success in everyday living.

Loops and other Groups - A kinesthetic Writing System

This system requires for its efficiency careful letter analysis so that students can clearly visualize and verbalize the movement pattern while experiencing the "feel" of the letter. In this system, students do not learn the 26 letters individually in alphabetic order. Instead they learn four groups of letters which share common movement patterns.

Making Math Accessible to Students with Special Needs Grades K-2

This resource activities involves readers through student case studies, reflective questions and learning tasks; it can be used as a self-study professional development tool or group book study. It offers solutions to the challenges of mathematics education.

Making Math Accessible to Students with Special Needs Grades 3-5

This resource activities involves readers through student case studies, reflective questions and learning tasks; it can be used as a self-study professional development tool or group book study. It offers solutions to the challenges of mathematics education.

Making Math Accessible to Students with Special Needs Grades 6-8

This resource activities involves readers through student case studies, reflective questions and learning tasks; it can be used as a self-study professional development tool or group book study. It offers solutions to the challenges of mathematics education.

Make It with Inspiration

An easy-to-use guide to Inspiration designed for teachers, students and other professionals. An activity-based approach helps you create concepts maps, graphical organizers, character webs and brainstorming diagrams in a matter of minutes.

Practical Ideas That Really Work of English Language Learners

The latest book in a series designed for educators and other school-based professionals. It marks a departure from previous books in the series because it is the first to focus on a non-disabled population of students: those who are not native English speakers.

Practical Ideas That Really Work for Students with Reading Disabilities Second Edition

This is the second edition for educators who work with students who struggle to read grade-level content area texts and other materials. The overall goal of this book is to offer teachers a resource that is both easy to use And full of practical intervention ideas.

Practical Ideas That Really Work for Teaching Math Problem Solving

This book was written to assist teachers in providing instructional activities and learning strategies that will promote effective problem solving in students who experience difficulties with problem-solving skills in school.

O TASKS – How to empower student to ask questions and care about answers

This remarkable book demonstrates a skill-building approach to all kinds of tasks including:

- evaluating the reliability of information
- connecting with literature and the arts
- analyzing personal issues and setting realistic goals
- exploring scientific and mathematical concepts
- delving deeper into world issues
- testing new ideas

Response to Intervention – A Practical Guide for Every Teacher – on small shelve

A Multimedia kit for Professional Development – This program offers a framework for guiding group facilitators involved in professional development workshops. It summarizes activities and workshop ideas for response to intervention (RTI), as well as handouts and overheads for use as support material. Reading this guide will give facilitators a solid background for successfully leading a study of both the book and the DVD.

Response to Intervention – An Action Guide for School Leaders

The authors of this book wanted to clarify RTI for busy principals and other school leaders in a way that would add value to other available resources. The information in this book conveys the big picture of RTI and points school leaders to other resources useful to filling in the details.

RtI & Math: The Classroom Connection Estimates Considered, Logic Required, Data Imperative

This book offers teacher-friendly, research-based techniques for students and intermediate levels who are struggling with math foundations, specifically whole numbers. Also included are tools to monitor the effectiveness of the techniques based upon student responsiveness and progress.

RtI: The Classroom Connection to Literacy

This book provides a framework for implementing research-based techniques in each of the five key precepts of reading Along with suggestions for monitoring student progress.

Scaffolding Young Writers – A writers' workshop Approach

Adopting an apprenticeship approach, the authors show how explicit teaching, good models, clear demonstrations, establish routines, assisted teaching followed by independent practice, and self-regulated learning are all fundamental in establishing a successful writers' workshop. There is a detailed chapter on organizing for writers' workshop, including materials, components, routines and procedures. Other chapters provide explicit guidelines for designing productive mini-lessons and student conferences.

Schools That Work Were all Children Read and Write

Specifically, this down-to-earth, insightful book details the critical features of school organization plans that can support or impede teacher development of more effective educational settings. The authors present exemplary efforts in real schools across the country and offer a clear view of how schools must change to meet the increased demands of education for the 21st century.

SOCRATIC Fostering Critical and Creative Thinking CIRCLES in Middle School and High School

Socratic Circles is filled not only with detailed instructional strategies and curricular design elements but also true stories about real students and how they benefit from this approach.

Story Drama – Creating stories through role playing, improvising, and reading aloud 2nd Edition

This book describes a wealth of strategies for moving students inside the stories they read or experience together. Organized around proven ways to use all types of stories, each chapter features effective frameworks and workshop lessons that can be easily implemented in any classroom.

Supporting Struggling Readers and Writers – Strategies for Classroom Intervention 3-6

Drawing on a combined forty years of classroom teaching experience, the authors explore the factors that contribute to success and failure in literacy and provide systematic and ongoing approaches for helping students who are most at risk.

Teaching the Best Practice Way - Methods that Matter K-12

This book presents 7 basic teaching structures that make classrooms more active, experiential, collaborative, democratic, and cognitive, while simultaneously meeting best practice standards across subject areas and throughout the grades.

Teaching Kids with Mental Health & Learning Disorders in the Regular Classroom

This assessable, ready-to-use guide describes mental health and learning disorders often observed in school children, explains how each might be exhibited in the classroom, and offers suggestions for what to do (and what not to do).

Teaching Reading to Black Adolescent Males – Closing the achievement GAP

Alfred Tatum bridges the connections among theory, instruction and professional development to create a roadmap for better literacy achievement. He presents practical suggestions for providing reading strategy instruction and assessment that is explicit, meaningful and culturally responsive, as well as guidelines for selecting and discussing nonfiction and fiction text with black males.

Teaching Students to Read Through Their Individual Learning Styles

This book will aid teachers and supervisors in dramatically reducing and even preventing failure through the early diagnosis of individual characteristics and matching of methods and materials to specific individuals strengths. Systematic approaches are presented that respond to the unique learning requirements of poor readers.

Textbook and The Students Who Can't Read Them: A Guide to Teaching Content

This book proposes two major shifts in the way we think about readers and textbook learning:

1. Students, even those with low reading skills, can learn to use the mainstream textbooks more effectively, and
2. textbooks can be designed to make them more useable not only for low readers, but for all students.

The Complete Guide to Service Learning

Proven, Practical Ways to Engage Students in Civic Responsibility, Academic Curriculum & Social Action

The Early Childhood Education Intervention Treatment Planner

Educational treatment plan components for 27 educational disabilities, over 1,000 prewritten educational treatments goals, objectives, and interventions-plus space to record your own treatment plan options. A step-by-step guide to writing treatment plans that meet requirements of most accrediting bodies, insurance companies, and third-party payers, as well as Individualized Education Plans (IEPs)

The Exceptional Teacher's Handbook, The First-Year Special Education Teacher's Guide for Success

Can assist the first-year teacher in successfully navigating the ever-changing maze of special education. The handbook was written from a classroom teacher's perspective and supplies the reader with practical suggestions.

The contents of the book can be tailored to fit the individual needs of most special education program and provides the first-year special education teacher with the necessary framework for a successful school year.

The Kid's Guide To Service Projects

Over 500 Service Ideas for Young People Who Want to Make a Difference

The Way They Learn

An enlightening resource with a variety of learning styles that shape the way students interpret their world. Once these approaches are understood, parents and teachers can become far more effective in helping children grasp confusing concepts, stay interested in lessons, and utilize their strengths.

When Adolescents Can't Read: Methods & Materials That Work

This program for adolescents who are behind in reading as much as five to six grade levels. With this program, students make impressive gains to bring most of them up to grade level. The program, based on research and practice in reading and reading disabilities, has great simplicity, and does not require elaborate and expensive teacher training.

ADHD

Attention Without Tension

Finally a book that gives teachers all the tools necessary to identify and manage children with Attention Disorders. Highlights include:

- Complete description of attention problems, causes, characteristics and interventions
- Legal issues
- 12-Step action plan
- Effective teaching methods
- Classroom management strategies
- Teacher's success stories
- 80 pages of duplicating masters

Practical Ideas That Really Work for Students with ADHD – Preschool Through Grade 4 – Second Edition

Book created for educators who work with students who have attention, impulsivity problems that interfere with their ability to learn. The materials are intended for use with students PK-4th grade and include two components.

Practical Ideas That Really Work for Students with ADHD – Grade 5 Through 12 – Second Edition

Book created for educators who work with students who have attention, impulsivity problems that interfere with their ability to learn. The materials are intended for use with student's 5th – 12th grade.

The ADD & ADHD Answer Book

This book contains Professional Answers to 275 of the Top Questions Parents Ask

The Attention Deficit Disorder Interventions Manual

This manual was developed after repeated requests from educators for a “strategies guide” to better meet the needs of students with ADD in our schools today. The manual is the culmination of extensive efforts to provide classroom intervention strategies for the most common characteristics of ADD exhibited by students in school situations.

The Parents Guide to Attention Deficit Disorders

This guide was developed to provide parents with specific, practical strategies to use in helping their child be more successful in the home environment.

Administration

10 Traits of Highly Effective Teachers

How to Hire, Coach, and Mentor Successful Teachers

34 Activities to Promote Careers in Special Education and Related Services

A guide to promote careers in Special Education.

55 Teaching Dilemmas – Ten powerful solutions to almost any classroom challenge

This essential resource offers specific, practical ideas to help teachers

- manage their classroom time efficiently
- educate with passion and enthusiasm
- support students who are struggling
- motivate with creativity and humor
- lead effectively both inside the classroom and out

A Mind At a Time

This book shows parents and those who care for children how to identify individual learning patterns and explain how to strengthen a child's ability and either bypass or help overcome the weakness, producing positive results instead of repeated frustration and failure.

A to EZ Handbook: Staff Development

A staff development guide for teachers with lesson plans, activity files and other resources.

ADA Amendments Act – Guide to

All major areas of the ADA that have been revised are highlighted throughout this guide in shaded boxes; new provisions are in bold face type.

Administration Policy Handbook for Preschool Mainstreaming

A handbook prepared specifically for public school administrators to help develop a mainstream preschool program for children with special needs.

Appropriate Education for the Handicapped

This book is designed to provide the regular education teacher with an overview of the types and characteristics of students who are referred to as special, handicapped or exceptional, and the ways in which the unique needs of these students may be met in the educational environments.

A School Districts guide to Section 504 and ADA 2009-2010 (DVD)

A legal overview by Walsh, Anderson, Brown, Aldridge & Gallegos Law firm of the laws for 504 and ADA

Becoming an Authentic Learning Leader, Whatever You Do Inspire Me!

Dr. Kanold examines eight fundamental disciplines of inspirational leadership and how they can impact one's leadership life as well as the legacy of a leadership team. Practical yet challenging, this session promises to provide the support and focus needed to sustain effective leadership over time.

Best Practice – New Standards for Teaching and Learning in America's Schools

Updated descriptions of progressive teaching in six subject areas: reading, writing, mathematics, science, social studies and the arts.

Catching a Moving Train

The Forum invited educators to a small forum to discuss why special education missed the high school transformation express. On this DVD five outstanding Indianapolis area practitioners help define the problems and the solutions to this dilemma.

Coaching Classroom Management Strategies and Tools for Administrators and Coaches

This second edition of Coaching Management is filled with everything you need to implement effective behavioral coaching – observation forms, staff development materials, check-list, rating scales, and tip sheets for classroom walk-throughs.

Coordinating for Reading Instruction: General Education and Special Education Working Together

The purpose of this booklet is to provide strategies to help general and special education teachers, SLP's, counselors paraprofessionals and administrators plan for and implement co-teaching during reading instruction in classrooms where a variety of learners are represented, including students with disabilities.

Council for Exceptional Children Policy and Advocacy Services

This publication which compares selected significant issues of regulations in an easy-to-read, side-by-side format. The side-by-side analysis includes critical CEC comments and provides clarity and insight into the new regulations based on CEC recommendations and U.S. Department of Education discussion.

Directory of Grants for Organizations Serving People with Disabilities

Research tool for large and small nonprofit organizations.

Elizabeth Farrell and the History of Special Education

Chances are you won't see Elizabeth Farrell's name in most education textbooks. However, in early 1933 her tireless devotion, her innovative ideas and her long-range vision made her instrumental in the development of special education as we know it today.

Ethics and Law for School Psychologists, Fifth Edition

Revised to address the daily needs of school psychologists, educators, school administrators, and other associated professionals, this is a key resource for understanding and delivering ethically and legally sound services within a school setting, and understanding the implications and administration of legislation relevant to the field.

Field Guide to Nonprofit Program Design, Marketing and Evaluation

The guidebook provides clear, comprehensive and integrated guidelines for all of the most important aspects of designing, marketing and evaluating a program. Guidelines are written in an easy-to-implement style, resulting in a highly practical resource that can be referenced at any time during the life of the nonprofit program.

Homebound Services Under the IDEA and Section 504: An Overview of Legal Issues

This pamphlet was prepared with a view toward reviewing recent developments in the area of eligibility for, and the provision of, services to homebound students. Of special interest is a recent court decision upholding what is a common practice in many schools of requiring the presence of an adult in order to provide homebound services.

How To Develop a Professional Learning Community Passion and Persistence

Combines the key components of professional learning communities with professional learning communities with powerful music, quotes and lighthearted humor to produce an excellent reinforcement or introduction to the framework.

How to Prepare A Research Article in APA Style

This book has been formatted consistently with APA expectations. Appendices A-G contain supplementary material including style tips, checkpoints for preparing manuscripts, selected APA rules, guidelines for using headings and formatting references, and other considerations as well as some thoughts on reviews, reviewers and reviewing associated with publishing empirical research.

How to Say It

This versatile and easy-to-use guide helps you compose well-written, effective letters in minutes for virtually every business and personal situation.

IEP and Section 504 Team Meetings....and the Law

Is for people who want to be confident about the laws so they can work for better schools and get back to the mission of educating ALL students.

Implementation Guide Assembly Required – A Continuous School Improvement System

Provides hands-on activities and exercises, many with copyable forms and worksheets, to guide busy instructional leaders and members of leadership teams step-by-step through the Continuous School Improvement Process. Within each chapter you'll also find "Big Ideas" that offer additional insight into specific components of the continuous improvement process.

Including SAMUEL(DVD)

A heartwarming encounter of Samuel Habib. It captures the cultural and systemic barriers to inclusion and features interviews with teachers, parents and disability rights experts.

Kids with Special Needs: Information & Activities to Promote Awareness & Understanding

Information and reproducible activities to promote awareness and understanding. Includes living and working with a child with special needs, awareness activities, communication disabilities, physical disabilities and facts about other health conditions and resources.

Logic Modeling Methods in Program Evaluation

Written for students, researchers, consultants, professionals, and scholars, this guide provides a step-by-step explanation of logic modeling and its importance in connecting theory with implementation and outcomes in program evaluation in the social sciences.

Multiple Intelligences in the Classroom

You'll find information on how to explore your own intelligences, introduce students to the seven intelligences, develop multiple-intelligence (MI) lessons, conduct MI assessments, and much more. You'll also find innovative suggestions for further study that will enable you and your colleagues to expand your knowledge and develop your own applications of MI theory.

NELI DVD Training Series

The General Educator's Guide to Accommodations (2009)

No Disposable KIDS

The authors provide insight into the world of children that were considered "too far gone", by sharing strategies drawn from the best resiliency models and their success with actual cases. By reframing rebellious acts as signs of resilience, the authors uncover the natural self-righting tendencies of youth who face adverse circumstances.

Organizing Your IEP's

Inside you will find sections on organizing your paperwork, streamlining data collection, tracking new IEP's, annual reviews, and reevaluations, setting up an electronic filing system, and communicating with all the people involved in the IEP process – including parents, classroom teachers, support staff and others.

Principle Centered Leadership

A long-term inside-out approach to developing people and organizations. The key to dealing with the challenges that face us today is the recognition of the principal-centered core within both ourselves and our organizations.

Proactive Leadership in the 21st Century – Classroom, School and District

This book will give teachers and administrators the skills they need to become as proficient on the "people side" of leadership and management as they are on the technical or academic side. It is meant to reveal the rules of the game and provide some proactive answers which can be applied immediately.

Response to Intervention for Secondary School Administrators: How to Implement RtI in Middle School and High School

The purpose of this book is twofold. First, it will help administrators and school staff use their existing district and campus level support system to implement RtI in a seamless three-tier process that is both time and cost efficient. Second, this guide will help administrators, other educational specialists and even parents understand the RtI process in the context of a secondary school system and their roles.

Say the Right Thing: A Guide for Responding to Parents' IEP Request

The purpose of this guide is to provide assistance to administrators and special education staff who are required to respond to requests for programs and/or services in IEP meetings. Topics are arranged alphabetically with three components for each request: Guiding Principles, Sample Language, and Questions for the IEP Team. This book is a companion to Write the Right Thing

School Administrator's Complete Letter Book

A book for school administrators as a resource of model letters and memos for a wide variety of educational purposes and circumstances.

Short-Term Suspension and Patterns of Disciplinary Removal: Making Sense of IDEA and Section 504 Rules

Special rules and limitations apply under both the IDEA and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act – triggering specific duties for school districts – when a student with disabilities is suspended or otherwise removed from the classroom for enough days during the school year to constitute a "change of placement."

TCASE Midwinter Conference "It's Show Time" – 2006 CD

The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People: Powerful Lessons in Personal Change

Presents a holistic, integrated, principle-centered approach for solving personal and professional problems.

The Documentation Handbook 2nd Edition: Appraisal, Non-renewal & Termination

Information includes the legal framework, principles of documentation, the marginally effective teacher, documenting instruction and writing/monitoring professional growth plans.

The Educator's Guide to Texas School Law (Fourth Edition)

For the Fourth Edition, chapters on governance, employment, and student discipline have been completely rewritten. Major portions of chapters have also been revamped to reflect the current state of the law.

The Law of Student Records or FERPA DVD

The Logic Model Guidebook: Better Strategies for Great Results

For both practitioners and students, this text provides the reader with a basic understanding of how to create and use logic models.

The LRE Continuum:

Appropriate Placement Decisions Under the IDEA and NCLB

The Principal As Staff Developer

This is a book which would be of value to any administrator. It is different by virtue of connecting staff development with clinical supervision. This is innovative.

The Special Education Treatment Planner

This planner provides all the elements necessary to quickly and easily develop formal education treatment plans that take the educational professional a step further in the writing of goals for IEPs.

The Teacher's Resource Guide: The Staff Development Guide to the Most Common Learning and Behavior Problems Encountered in the Educational Environment

This textbook provides a list of useful suggestions that educators can implement when faced with students exhibiting common learning and/or behavior problems in the classroom.

The Top Section 504 Errors: Expert Guidance to Avoid 25 Common Compliance Mistakes

This pamphlet provides an overview of what Section 504 is about and some insight into the most common errors made by public schools in eligibility, implementation, and discipline.

Thriving As a Special Educator: Balancing Your Practices and Ideals

The concept for the book started with a small group of special educators at CEC Headquarters talking about their own expectations of special education teachers and how they differed from the realities of the classroom.

TRIPLICITY: Administrator's Guide to Facilitating the Partner Teacher / Para-educator Partnership

This guide represents the combination of the three levels needed for successful utilization of instructional par educators.

Value-added Leadership: How to Get Extraordinary Performance in Schools

Provides a clear, compelling, and practical view of leadership for both educational and those within the general public who are interested in improving schools.

Visual Tools for Constructing Knowledge

Three types of visual tools can help students and teachers construct knowledge, organize information, and communicate their learning with others: brainstorming webs, task-specific organizers, and thinking-processing maps. This book explains what visual tools are, why we should use them and how to get the most out of these tools.

Whale Done

In this moving and inspirational new book, Blanchard explains that both whales and people perform better when you accentuate the positive. He shows how using the techniques of animal trainers—specifically those responsible for the killer whales of Sea World—can supercharge your effectiveness at work and at home.

What every Principal Needs to Know About Special Education

This resource offers insights on how to lead programs for students with special needs and covers basic legal and procedural information.

Whatever It Takes: How Professional Learning Communities Respond When Kids Don't Learn

The authors describe the system of interventions, including Adlai E. Stevenson High School's "Pyramid of Interventions," created by a high school, a middle school, and two elementary schools. The authors also discuss the logistical barriers these schools faced and their strategies for overcoming them.

Write the Right Thing: Sample Letters for Responding to Parents' Concerns

The purpose of this guide is to help provide sample letters that can be used and modified to meet specific needs. The sample letters include special education requests as well as a broad range of other topics and issues. Included with this guide is a CD-ROM.

Assessment

Assessing Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students

This book contains a wealth of information that every school psychologist and child psychologist assessing English-language learners should have at hand. The issues are clearly presented and carefully argued. The reader is led to appreciate the need for a complex, integrated approach for untangling the relative influence of cultural and linguistic factors on test performance.

Don't Grow Dendrites – Worksheets Instructional Strategies That Engage the Brain

Imagine raising student achievement by meeting the learning needs of each student and increasing subject matter understanding, all while enjoying teaching and learning. Maria Tate demonstrates 20 strategies, including:

- Using humor and telling stories
- Implementing problem-based instruction
- Incorporating games into lessons
- Utilizing mnemonic devices and metaphors
- Singing and dancing while learning to facilitate the learning process

Early Childhood Assessment

Step-by-step approach to the comprehensive psychological assessment of young children. In addition to covering major psychological tests, this resource includes specific guidelines and formats for interviewing parents and other caregivers, observing children and caregiver-child interaction, conducting assessments, writing reports, and evaluating outcomes of recommended interventions.

Essentials of Assessment Report Writing

Instructive guide to preparing informative and accurate assessment reports for a variety of individuals and settings.

Fair Isn't Always Equal, Assessing & Grading in the Differentiated Classroom

This book offers the latest research and common sense thinking that teachers and administrations seek when it comes to assessment and grading in differentiated classes. Citing real examples and “gray” areas middle school and high school educators will easily recognize. It tackles important and sometimes controversial assessment and grading issues constructively.

Neuropsychological Perspectives on Learning Disabilities in the Era of RTI

An insightful look at the role of neuroscience and neuropsychology as it relates to Response to Intervention (RTI) in learning disability diagnosis, treatment, and policy reform.

Reaching Potentials: Appropriate Curriculum and Assessments for Young Children Volume 1

This book is designed as a tool to help reach individual potentials through appropriate curriculum and assessment.

Traumatic Brain Injury: Mechanism of Damage, Assessment, Interventions & Outcome

Approximately 40% of all head injury patients are below the age of 18. Many of these individuals will be receiving services in the framework of the public school setting. This textbook presents valuable information regarding the mechanisms and the pathological consequences of a traumatic brain injury as well as assessment and intervention techniques that professional can use to ensure success in individuals with a traumatic brain injury.

Autism

Adapted Physical Education for Students with Autism

This book is for physical educators who may encounter children or young adults with autism or similar problems with communication and social interaction. It focuses on helping students begin to learn basic gross motor skills which could then be carried over to play/leisure time activities.

A Treasure Chest of Behavioral Strategies for Individuals with Autism

The authors' purpose on writing this book was to provide a resource manual that applies theory and best practices in behavioral management for individuals with autism.

Autism Fact and Strategies for Parents

This book is for the parent who has just discovered that your child has autism. It contains some basic information to help you understand:

- Your child's diagnosis
- The effects of autism on learning and behavior
- Your role as an advocate
- The important first decisions you must make for your child's future
- How to prevent and manage many of your child's problems
- How to teach your child some critical early skills

Autism Spectrum Disorders “Handouts” What Parents should Know

This book contains more than 60 reproducible articles for parents of children with an autism spectrum disorder(ASD).

These reproducible handouts are intended for teachers, speech-language pathologists, psychologist and other professionals to provide as resources for families with whom they work.

Captain Tommy

A story of a young boy who reluctantly agrees to separate from his best friend to play with someone new – a boy he perceives as different – a boy who has pervasive developmental disorder, also known as autism.

Developing Leisure Time for Persons with Autism: A Practical Approach for Home, School and Community

This book includes typical leisure behavior and age appropriate activities for persons with autism.

Facilitating the Classroom Learning of Students with Asperger Syndrome and High-Functioning Autism(DVD)

A video training program designed to help elementary classroom teachers and specialists increase the on-task behavior and achievement of students on the autism spectrum.

How Does Your Engine Run? A Leader's Guide to the Alert Program for Self-Regulation

This book provides a way for parents, teachers and therapists to help their students learn about themselves at a very basic level. It provides an easily understood way for children to monitor the signals that indicate an internal level of readiness to work, play, listen, attend, and participate in the activities of life.

Practical Ideas That Really Work for Students with Asperger Syndrome

This resource provides an assessment system and set of intervention ideas for students who are identified or exhibit many behaviors associated with Asperger syndrome.

Practical Ideas That Really Work for Students with Autism Spectrum Disorder Second Edition

This book was written to assist educators and parents in providing intervention strategies to promote these students' ability to learn and function in social situations.

Reaching the Child With Autism Through Art: Practical Fun Activities to Enhance Motor Skills

This is a collection of art projects that have been “kid-tested” to be effective with children diagnosed as autistic. It utilizes all forms of mediums, implements and surfaces. It is divided into 4 sections: collage experiences, painting experiences, play experiences and sculpture experiences.

Teaching Activities for Autistic Children Vol. III

The purpose of this guide is to make available to teachers and parents teaching activities that are tailored for use with autistic and similar children. It focuses on the development of teaching strategies and explains in detail how to plan and write individualized teaching programs for use at home and school.

The ASPERGER'S Answer Book

This book has Professional Answers to 275 of the Top Questions Parents Ask

Thinking in Pictures My Life with Autism

This book delivers a report from the country of autism. Writing from a dual perspectives of a scientist and an autistic person, she tells us how she managed to breach boundaries to function in the outside world. Writing by Temple Grandin an autistic woman.

Tobin Makes Friends

A story about how Tobin, the red fire engine, learns to make and keep friends. In the story Tobin learns about shouting, crowding, sharing, borrowing, taking turns, interrupting, using kind words, having good manners and obeying rules.

"You're Going to Love This Kid" Teaching Students with Autism in the Inclusive Classroom

Read this book to address your questions and concerns about including children with autism in classroom life. You'll come away with insight, ideas, and inspiration.

Co-Teaching and Inclusion

7 Effective Strategies for Secondary Inclusion (DVD)

Coordinating for Reading Instruction: General Education and Special Education Working Together

The purpose for this booklet is to provide strategies to help general and special education teachers, speech and language pathologists, school counselors, para-professionals and administrators plan for and implement co-teaching during reading instruction in classrooms where a variety of learners are represented, including students with disabilities.

Co-Teach!

This is a handbook prepared specifically for teachers and administrators at elementary, middle and high school who are interested in finding out how to make their co-teaching programs be the best. It includes the best recent research on co-teaching, but it is written and organized in a way to make it easy to read and immediately applicable to your situation.

Creating an Inclusive School 2nd Edition

This guide explores how inclusive education can support a diverse student body at all grade levels. They show how to meet standards and provide a "least restrictive environment" for students with disabilities by using cooperative learning, teaming, multi-age grouping, multicultural education, social skills training, and education technology. It includes personal stories of people with disabilities and the educators and parents who work with them.

Including Students with Severe and Multiple Disabilities in Typical Classrooms

This updated edition gives readers:

- * coverage of today's critical issues, including alternate assessment and literacy in all its forms
- * innovative strategies for inclusive classrooms, such as block scheduling and highly individualized academic adaptations
- * case studies from actual classrooms that illustrate practical solutions to challenging situations
- * separate chapters on inclusion in middle and high school

Inclusion Strategies That Work – Researched based Methods for the Classroom

Whether you are a general or special education K-12 teacher, this guide helps you understand and implement hand-on strategies for successful classroom inclusion of students with disabilities. Students identified for special education services pose a variety of challenges, but this practical resource gives you researched-based tools that make differentiating instruction for all students much easier.

Inclusion The Next Step (4 DVDs)

Inclusive Classrooms (DVD)

Making Inclusion Work

In today's classrooms, teachers must meet the educational needs of students of all ability levels, including students with disabilities. This invaluable resource offers elementary and secondary teachers a deeper awareness of "what works" when teaching students with disabilities in general education classrooms. Grounded in extensive special education research, this book will enlighten teachers with a greater understanding of special education students and how to teach them successfully.

More Inclusion Strategies That Work

With researched-based methods for identifying and meeting the needs of students with special needs, this valuable guide presents instructional and accommodation strategies to help all students access the general curriculum. This reader-friendly handbook provides teachers with targeted assistance.

More Power (CD)

Practical Ideas That Really Work for Secondary Students in Inclusive Classrooms

The materials provide an assessment system and set of intervention ideas for students with mild or moderate disabilities or struggling learners who are served in inclusive classrooms. They are intended for use with students in Grade 6 through 12.

Students with Special Needs A Resource Guide for Teachers

This guide is designed to provide teachers with a quick and easy to use resource to address the student needs on a daily basis. It highlights various categories and characteristics of students with special needs, along with key instructional and behavioral strategies that work.

Support for Inclusive Schooling

This visionary book goes beyond traditional mainstreaming. It outlines a broad range of strategies for how to implement inclusive education and shows how the respect children learn for each other in the classroom can carry over into the wider community.

Teaching Fairly in an Unfair World

Suggest effective ways teachers can re-define an inclusive curriculum by questioning what is taught, how it is taught, to whom, and under what conditions. It offers teachers a wealth of challenging, open-ended pursuits that give students “voice” and help them better understand their world. This powerful book includes a handy summary of 50 strategies, along with reproducible pages for easy classroom use.

Techniques for Including Students with Disabilities

This guide is designed to provide principals with the basic framework to achieve the goal of serving all students within their school. Its primary intent is to enhance the skills of principals in providing leadership for mainstreaming students with special needs.

The Classroom Teacher’s Guide to Instructional and Curricular Modifications – Workbook and 5 DVDs

This book specifically targets the area of academic support for students with special needs- defining and implementing instructional modifications and curricular modifications in a variety of instructional settings, specifically in the general education classroom and curriculum.

The Co-Teaching Lesson Plan Book – 3rd Edition

Given concern for the success of all students, space is offered for both teachers to identify students who need additional accommodations or who are at-risk of failing in the class. Interventions planned by the special educator may be used to assist all students in the class.

The Inclusive School – An Organizational Guide for Educators

The purpose of this guide is to provide school staff with a practical and easy to use resource for organizing their school environment to best meet the needs of all students. Each chapter is designed to offer simple steps to follow along with resource forms that can be applied immediately. It facilitates the collaboration between school staff, parents, and students.

The Illusion of Full Inclusion – A Comprehensive Critique of a Current Special Education Bandwagon

The full inclusion bandwagon offers an attractive platform—the merger of special and general education into a seamless and supple system that will support all students adequately in general schools and general education classrooms, regardless of any student’s characteristics.

The Special Educator’s Guide to Collaboration

Whether used for personal improvement or as a group for professional development purposes, this invaluable set of relationship-building tools will empower teachers and give them the motivation, understanding and skills to transform unsatisfactory co-teaching relationships into productive, truly collaborative relationships.

Using Co-Teaching To Increase Learning for All Students Grades 6-12 Part 1 and Part Worksheets and DVD

You will see a number of practical, simple co-teaching strategies that can immediately be implemented in grades 6-12 inclusion classrooms. The training program takes you inside the classroom of several teams of experienced co-teachers to demonstrate co-teaching in action.

Differentiated Instruction

Advancing Differentiation, Thinking and Learning for the 21st Century

In this book you will learn how to:

- Build achievement motivation and growth mindset
- Encourage self-regulation and learner autonomy
- Inspire students’ passions and creativity
- Design complex, rigorous curriculum for students at every level
- Get all students not just learning, but also thinking

Differentiating Instruction Collaborative Planning and Teaching for Universal Designed Learning

The goal is to meet the needs of all learners styles, including gifted, those with disabilities, and English language learners. Filled with easy-to-use, teacher-tested and research-based tools and strategies, this comprehensive reference provides teachers and administrators with:

- Step-by-step guidelines for using UDL and the retrofit approach to differentiate instruction
- Multiple strategies for integrating differentiated lessons with collaborative planning and teaching

Differentiating Instruction for Students with Learning Disabilities

The use of these research-proven practices will result in academic enhancement in your classroom. Whether your challenging students are identified as learning disabled or low-achieving, these strategies and tactics can lead to significant gains for you in reading comprehension, language arts and math. This is a survival guide for differentiating instruction in today's classroom.

Differentiated Instruction Guide for Inclusive Teaching

Developed initially to assist teachers in inclusive classrooms meet the needs of students with disabilities, the process has proven beneficial to any educator who is committed to providing access to the general education curriculum, as well as instructional equity and excellence for ALL students. She acknowledges the challenging realities of providing all students with access to the general education curriculum, but counters these with a practical model and concrete suggestions.

Differentiated Instruction In Action 3 DVD's

How to Differentiate Instruction in Mixed Ability Classrooms, 1st and 2nd edition

This defines differentiated instruction and the teacher's role. Included are examples of classrooms. It discusses learning ability, managing, lesson plans, and assessment of classrooms and students. This is designed primarily for teachers

Learn for All

This book is about effective schools research and implementation. Effective schools are schools where all students can achieve academic success.

Making Differentiation a Habit

This book includes new ideas, fresh perspectives, & research-based strategies. It also has tools to optimize teaching, learning & assessments. There are reproducible forms and all you need to consistently differentiate instruction.

Strategies for Differentiating Instruction Best Practice for the Classroom

Designed specifically for teachers who are new to differentiated instruction, this book offers sound, practical advice for preassessing students, implementing differentiation strategies and managing and assessing student learning. This book is filled with the essentials teachers need to know in order to differentiate instruction and address all students' needs, interests, and abilities.

Discipline

100 things guys need to know

Read this book. It's full of things that guys need to know. Who says? Guys do. The author surveyed more than 500 boys ages 9-13 About what it's like to grow up today. The six sections in the book – You, Body and Mind, Family, School, Relationships and Future – are based on topics they brought up.

101 Ways to Develop Student Self-Esteem and Responsibility

A bestseller, this book contains 101 dynamic activities to help students improve their self-esteem and accept responsibility for their life. Cartoons, quotes, and other devices help make the ideas clear and capture and keep students interest in this complete teacher resource.

Administrator's Desk Reference of Behavior Management Volumes I, II and III

Volume I: Leadership Guide: Helps to assist building principals (and assistant principals) in:
Ensuring that all school settings are safe and productive
Creating a positive school climate with high expectancy of student success.
Designing effective policies and procedures for prompting students to be responsible, highly motivated and actively engaged in school tasks.

Volume II: Referrals and Solutions: The purpose of this volume is to provide a principal with specific and practical information for responding to problem situations-both at the time of an incident and when a behavior problem is ongoing.

Volume III: Meaningful Work: a school based jobs program designed to increase student responsibility and give students an increased sense of purpose and belonging in the school

As Tough as Necessary Countering Violence, Aggression and Hostility in Our Schools

This video workshop with guide helps teachers and administrators learn together how to create a school climate that reverses the violent disruptive behaviors and helps children acquire the values and skills they need to support the educational process. It is based on the work of Allen N. Mendler and Richard L. Curwin, whose seminal book, Discipline With Dignity (1988), has revolutionized the way many schools view their discipline policies.

As Tough as Necessary A Discipline with Dignity Approach to Countering Aggression, Hostility and Violence Worksheets CD

This guide supports a video workshop in which teachers and administrators can learn together how to create a school climate that reverses the aggressive and hostile trends and helps children acquire the values and skills they need to support the educational process.

Behavior Disorders for Children and Adolescents

This book addresses the facts, questions, and issues about the nature of disorders, their causes, and procedures for assessing and treating these problems, particularly in school-aged children and youth.

Behavioral Objective Sequence

This guide is to assist special educators and other professionals assess behavioral competencies of students with emotional and behavioral disorders. It will also help to determine developmentally appropriate objectives from which detailed intervention plans can be prepared.

Bullying and Beyond 2 – Bullying and Peer Harassment Why does it Start and Who is Affected?

In this accessible keynote, Dr. Hymel examines research as well as events in real schools to help educators understand:

- Real-life student reactions to constant bullying
- Long-term consequences to the lives of bullies and their victims, such as academic difficulties, low self-esteem, depression, stress-related illness, anxiety and suicide
- Cultural trends that promote earlier proximity and attachment to peers (rather than their unconditionally loving parents)
- What educators can do to address and reduce bullying

Bullying and Beyond 3 – The role of the Bystander

In this insightful keynote, Dr. Twemlow explores the critical role of bystanders in reducing or exacerbating school violence, including:

- The role and effect of bystanders on bullying
- The difference between helpful bystanders (who can help achieve a peaceful outcome) and destructive bystanders (who may promote a violent outcome)
- The important role that bystanders played in well-known school shootings

Champs – A Proactive and Positive Approach to Classroom Management – books and DVDs

CHAMP's translates the research on effective classroom and behavior management into easy to implement steps for classroom teachers. The practical strategies presented in CHAMPs will help classroom teachers.

Childhood Disorders – Diagnostic Desk Reference

Provides detailed information on the identification, prevalence, treatment, and ramifications of hundreds of childhood disorders.

Written in non-medical terms, this reference presents in a single source the critical information you need to refer an affected child to a qualified physician or other specialist, hold a conference with the child's caregivers, and appropriately tailor an educational experience to fit the child's abilities.

Conflict in the Classroom 4th Edition

This book reflects the belief that behavior is caused and that teachers must understand and deal with the causes of behavior to help children grow, develop and learn. It covers many aspects of the experience of emotional disturbance and insights of theory and the wisdom of successful ideas and methods.

Discipline and the Section 504 Student: Your Quick-Reference Guide to Best Practices

This pamphlet provides insight on how schools can interpret Section 504 regulations and understand what their obligations are in areas including manifestation determinations, suspensions and expulsions, the 10-day-rule and significant changes in placement.

Discipline in the Secondary Classroom 2nd Edition with DVD Grades 9-12

This book includes nine chapters covering everything from creating a vision for classroom behavior to responding to misbehavior calmly and consistently.

Discipline with Dignity for Challenging Youth

Book offers practical suggestions which can be implemented in any classroom. No additional training is needed understanding the basic tenets of this volume and immediately applying them. It offers practical ways to encourage hopefulness for both students and teachers in settings where hope is often a lost commodity.

Discipline with Dignity A Plan for Prevention, Action, and Resolution DVD Set

A plan for prevention, action, and resolution of challenging classroom behaviors.

The three parts of this program—"Overview, Prevention, and Action and Resolution"—along with the facilitator's guide will provide you with the tools you need to lead your staff in developing a new, more constructive approach to discipline in your school.

Effective Student Intervention Teams

This book provides what teachers, administrators and support personnel need and want as they work to ensure academic and social success for their students. Student intervention teams are known by many names and have many specific goals and objectives, but the primary purpose of all of them is to support student and teachers – a purpose strongly rooted in both general and special education.

Emotional Disorders & Learning Disabilities in the Elementary Classroom

This unique book focuses on the interaction of learning disabilities and emotional disorders, fostering and understanding of how learning problems affect emotional well-being, and vice versa. Jean Cheng Gorman provides research-based, classroom-tested practical interventions teachers can integrate into their daily routines to help students become more purposeful and more effective.

Emotional Intelligence Why it can Matter More than IQ

Based on brain and behavioral research, the author shows how people with high IQ's do not do as well in some areas as people with lower IQ's. It argues that emotional intelligence is not fixed at birth and can be nurtured and strengthened in all of us.

Foundations of Emotional Research 3rd Edition

This book is on scientific behavioral research.

From RAGE to HOPE Strategies for Reclaiming Black & Hispanic Students 2nd Edition

A compelling and informative examination of the academic underachievement, apathy, and rage among America's Black and Hispanic youth. To speak motivation toward achievement in Black and Hispanic students.

Getting Classroom Management RIGHT

It provides resources specifically designed for teachers who work with adolescents and want to create learning environments that foster fairness, mutual respect, student accountability, and self-discipline.

Getting the Horse to Drink How to Motivate Unmotivated Students

This guide focuses on creating practical applications of the new discoveries being made in the neurosciences. She provides techniques for teaching to the whole brain.

Good-Bye Bullying Machine

A must-read for anyone who cares deeply about creating a bully-free environment, and a great book for children of all ages to see how they can help stop bullying in its tracks. (This book has a card game to play included)

How to be Bully Free

Inside, you'll find more than 100 prevention and intervention strategies you can start using immediately. All are easy to understand and simple to implement; most require little or no advance preparation and few or no special materials. This series also includes:

Create Bully Free Bulletin Boards, Posters, and Banners

How to Be Bully Free Workbook

Bully Free Card Game

IMPULSE CONTROL

Activities and worksheets for Middle School Students. Lessons address the multiple areas that are affected by impulsivity such as academics, emotions, problem-solving, social skills, and romantic relationships. Expanding on existing evidenced-based practices for decreasing impulsivity, lessons provide specific, engaging activities and worksheets to use with groups or individuals.

In the Drivers Set A Roadmap to Managing Student Behavior on the Bus

Comprehensive multimedia program that guides transportation departments in creating and maintaining a safe, responsible, and positive school bus climate through effective student behavior management.

Integrating Services for Children and Youth with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders

This book provides information for program planning and developing interagency programs for children with emotional and behavior disorders. It addresses the needs of the family and the agencies that can be utilized to meet their needs.

Interventions – Second Edition

Solidly based on both current and time-tested research, this new edition gives teachers and all educators more tools to correct any and all chronic problems – including overt misbehavior, lack of motivation, anger and hostility, and even chronic internalizing behaviors such as shyness, depression or anxiety.

Kids Who Outwit Adults

In "Kids Who Outwit Adults", the authors disclose the "private Logic" behind kids' troubled and defiant acts. Weaving together an effective, rewarding approach based on successful and proven resilience models, insights from their years of experience, and youths' own heart wrenching accounts, the authors illuminate the internal strengths and external supports kids need in order to break out of negative behavior patterns.

Making it till Friday 4th Edition A guide to Successful Classroom Management

This includes introduction to classroom management, teacher attitudes towards students, managing deficit behavior and excessive student behaviors, working with parents, meeting exceptional needs and guiding students towards self-management.

No Kidding About Bullying

Help students become "upstanders" for themselves and others, foster respectful classrooms, and prevent bullying behaviors with this flexible resource. Features include:

- 125 mini-lessons to do in 20 minutes or less
- Role plays, discussions, real-life student stories, art and writing projects
- Skills for assertiveness, communication, self-calming and anger management
- Detailed contents and index for finding activities on specific topics
- CD-ROM with 93 reproducible handouts, bonus activities, forms for parents, and information on school wide responses to bullying
- Pre- and post-assessment and survey forms
- Recommended student and teacher resources

Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training Program DVD

Peacemakers A Violence Prevention Program

This is an award-winning intervention program that combines best practices from psychology and values-education into experiences that are proven to help prevent youth violence and improve interpersonal behavior. This program includes 18 step-by-step lessons and a Student Handbook. The Peacemakers program has been recognized as a Promising Program for Safe, Disciplined, and Drug-free Schools by the U.S. Department of Education.

Please Stand Up!

This is a interactive CD-ROM for middle and high school students, educators, parents and community members to help expose and reject bystander behavior and to empower youth to take a stand against violence. It also a request for adults to take seriously whatever youth shares as a concern, worry, fear, or secret.

Practical Ideas That Work for Students with Disruptive, Defiant or Difficult Behavior PK – 4th grade

This book is for educators who deal with students displaying challenging behaviors in the classroom. The goal is to provide teachers with a resource that is easy to use and has a wide range of practical intervention ideas. Students who exhibit problem behavior require effective classroom managers. The behaviors targeted in this book are grouped into three categories:

Disruptive
Defiant
Difficult

Practical Ideas That Work for Students with Disruptive, Defiant or Difficult Behavior 5th – 12th grade

This book is for educators who deal with students displaying challenging behaviors in the classroom. The goal is to provide teachers with a resource that is easy to use and has a wide range of practical intervention ideas. Students who exhibit problem behavior require effective classroom managers. The behaviors targeted in this book are grouped into three categories:

Disruptive
Defiant
Difficult

Promoting Social and Emotional Learning

This book was coauthored by members of the Research and Guidelines Committee of the Collaborative for the Advancement of Social and Emotional Learning (CASEL). As such, it truly represents our collaborative efforts and demonstrates how such a joint approach can greatly enhance what any one of us could have accomplished alone. The coauthors include researchers, practitioners, and trainers, and the final product represents these different perspectives.

Programming for Adolescents with Behavioral Disorders Vol. 1-5(DVD)

Reality Therapy

Outlines a positive approach to helping people with emotional challenges. As a therapeutic method, Reality Therapy emphasizes moral values.

Reclaiming Our Prodigal Sons and Daughters DVD

It is comprised of interviews with present – day pioneers in reclaiming troubled and troubling youth.

Reclaiming Youth at Risk Our Hope for the Future Staff Development Videos and Facilitator's Guide

This video workshop takes viewers inside two school and two residential treatment centers that have experienced great success in creating environments that allow young people to transform crisis into opportunity and failure into success.

Rediscovering Hope Our Greatest Teaching Strategy

Practical ideas surrounding a new paradigm of schooling. Very creatively practical, clever examples, current references.

School Based Play Therapy

Describes play therapy approaches for special populations, such as sexually abused children, ADD/ADHD, children of divorce, and others.

Set Straight on Bullies

Teaching Emotionally Disturbed Children

This textbook is designed for prospective teachers of emotionally disturbed children and for teachers who daily confront children with severe disorders of behavior. Interest in these students remains high because of the demands they place on teachers and because of the general public's concern for discipline in the schools.

Teaching Empathy

This book focuses on teaching the pro-social skill of empathy by naming and practicing it, and by modeling and encouraging empathy.

Techniques for Managing Verbally and Physically Aggressive Students

Includes classroom climate and management techniques that fail and practical tips for successful behavior management. It gives sixteen tips for dealing with aggressive behavior, verbal aggression, and bully-proofing your classroom and many other strategies.

The ACCESS Program – Adolescent Curriculum for Communication and Effective Social Skills

This is designed to improve the social competence levels of adolescent students in middle and high school settings. Four years of effort have been invested by the authors in development, trial testing, and revision of the ACCESS program.

The Bullying Prevention Handbook A Guide for Principals, Teachers and Counselors 2nd Edition DVD included

This manual offers a comprehensive vision for preventing bullying, working with bullies and their victims, and fostering a school climate in which respect and caring are the norm.

The Four Keys to Effective Classroom and Behavior Management

The purpose of this workshop is to help educators explore four key components of effective classroom and behavior management that will help them establish an atmosphere that supports learning for all students.

The workshop will provide educators with well-researched, practical tools to meet this challenge.

The Inclusion Guide for Handling Chronically Disruptive Behavior

This guide will help educators define the chronically disruptive students as well as behaviors seen in schools today. It will assist in examining the contributing, underlying environmental factors on emotional concerns that will assist in the development of comprehensive individualized action plans.

The Iowa Assessment Model in Behavioral Disorders: A Training Manual

The primary goal of this publication is to present professionally defensible and generally agreed on criteria for the identification of students with behavioral disorders.

The Practical Art of Suicide Assessment – A guide for Mental Health Professionals and Substance Abuse Counselors

A Guide for Mental Health Professionals and Substance Abuse Counselors, this covers all the critical elements of suicide assessment.

The Resilience Revolution Discovering Strengths in Challenging Kids

The author's use of scientific research on resilience to reframe challenging behavior as pain-based behavior. They carefully describe practical strategies adults can use to help young people overcome their pain and develop resilience through:

- Building trust to meet the fundamental human need to belong
- Identifying innate talents and nurturing problem-solving skills
- Redefining “responsibility” to empower youth
- Installing a sense of purpose and generosity toward others

The Teacher's Encyclopedia of Behavior Management

This groundbreaking work offers the most innovative and practical strategies in education today for increasing student responsibility, addressing more than 100 of the most common classroom problems. With hundreds of model plans as well as invaluable techniques for customizing and implementing effective interventions.

The Tough Kid Book Practical Classroom Management Strategies

This book provides teachers at all grade levels with straightforward, ready to use materials for managing and motivating tough-to-teach students.

The Tough Kid Bully Blockers Book 15 Minute Lessons for Preventing & Reducing Bullying Includes CD with Reproducible Student Materials

A positive, proactive and comprehensive manual for use by classroom teachers and other school professionals in grade 1-6. Bully blockers prevents and reduces all forms of bullying, from gossiping and exclusion to physical aggression to increasingly prevalent cyber bullying.

The Tough Kid New Teacher Book

Practical Classroom Management Survival Strategies. This book is a practical, easy-to-use guide to managing even the most challenging classroom.

The Tough Kid Principal's Briefcase A Practical Guide to School-wide Behavior Management and Legal Issues

This book takes the most current information on supporting school-wide and individual student behavior and translates it into a concise, easy-to-use guide that will be an essential tool for elementary and secondary principals, assistant principals, and school administrators.

Tough to Reach, Tough to Teach Students with Behavior Problems

Dr. Rockwell's experience with children with behavioral problems range from intensive, round-the-clock teaching and supervision in wilderness camp settings to traditional classroom teaching. Children do not have to be classified “emotionally disturbed” or “behaviorally disordered” to act out when under stress. Being prepared is half the battle, and this resource will help every teacher be better prepared to teach students better way to communicate.

What to do When? How to Achieve Discipline with Dignity in the Classroom

The author sought to provide educators with information needed to deal both effectively and humanely with children.

When Every Second Counts – Mini-Inservices for Handling Common Classroom Behavior Problems

In this Mini- Inservice Program, behavioral expert Dr. Randy Sprick guides your staff through nine focused discussions on common problems that detract from instruction and learning.

With All Due Respect Keys for Building Effective School Discipline

This book provides unique perspectives on discipline strategies. It addresses how your belief system directly impacts the outcome of discipline interventions.

Why Can't They Just Behave? A Guide to Managing Student Behavior Disorders

This book addresses characteristics of disorders such as obsessive-compulsive disorder, Tourette's Syndrome, Aspergers Syndrome, traumatic brain injury along with treatments and interventions.

Why Johnny Doesn't Behave Twenty Tips to Measurable BIPs

The first half of this book features 20 “tips” to help you deal effectively with behavior problems. The second half consists of sections dedicated to Functional Behavior Assessments and Behavioral Intervention Plans. They begin with an explanation of each and end with sample FBAs and BIPs, providing numerous examples of how to write your own.

Learning Disabilities

A Cognitive Approach to Learning Disabilities

This book is designed for pre-service and in-service teachers, school psychologists, speech and language specialist and students and professionals who have interest in the field of learning disabilities.

Classroom Success for the LD and ADHD Child

This book emphasizes on educating teachers and other professionals as well as parents in leading LD/ADHD children to academic success. She offers practical suggestions on recognizing these students, adjusting teaching techniques, adapting texts, using specialists effectively, adjusting classroom management and testing and grading fairly.

Learning Disabilities and Employment

This textbook provides information regarding the numerous challenges that individuals with a learning disability encounters when joining the workforce or continuing their post-secondary education. It is an excellent resource for educators planning the student's transition process as well as for employers desiring to assist individuals with learning disabilities to be successful on the job and in the market place.

The LD Child and the ADHD Child: Ways Parents and Professionals Can Help

This book explores the idea that the LD disorder and the ADHD/ADD disorder are directly related. It specifically focuses on the suggestion that the vast majority of those with ADD also have most of the characteristics associated with a learning disability and almost all LD individuals have difficulty with concentration.

Thinking About Inclusion and Learning Disabilities A Teacher's Guide

This book is for teachers who have children with learning disabilities and for others deeply concerned with progress in teaching and learning.

Other

Motivating Black Males to Achieve in School I in Life

One of the most vexing problems confronting educators today is the chronic achievement gap between black male students and their peers. In this inspiring and thought-provoking book, veteran educator Baruti K. Kafele offers a blueprint for lifting black males up and ensuring their success in the classroom and beyond.

Reducing Disproportionate Representation of Culturally Diverse Students in Special and Gifted Education

This volume focuses on potential solutions to address the disproportionate representation of CLD students in special and gifted education.

Teaching Poverty in Mind – What being Poor does to Kid's Brains and What School can do About It

Drawing from research, experience and real school success stories, this book reveals

- What poverty is and how it affects students in school;
- What drives change both at the macro level (within schools and districts) and at the micro level (inside a student's brain)
- Effective strategies from those who have succeeded and ways to replicate those best practices at your own school; and
- How to engage the resources necessary to make change happen.

Transporting Medically Fragile or Technology-Assisted Students

This book gives specific instructions on handling students with special needs. Contains information for the medically fragile students that require medical procedures provided by a nurse or personal attendant while on the special needs bus.

Universal Design for Learning – A Guide for Teachers and Education Professionals

Offers education professionals a conceptual framework to create flexible, equitable, and assessable instructional techniques that accommodate individual learning differences in a classroom setting.

What Do I Do When...The Answer Book on Transportation for Students with Disabilities

Paraprofessionals

Assisting Reading Instruction: The Paraprofessional's Guide

The purpose of this workbook is to add supplement information to the accompanying video. A transcript of the video content is contained at the end of this workbook, so restating that information within the text of the workbook is not necessary. The information will provide you with strategies for gaining the knowledge and skills necessary to fulfill your role as a paraprofessional providing instructional assistance in reading.

How to be a Para Pro – A Comprehensive Training Manual for Paraprofessionals

This manual is specifically designed to address the needs of paraprofessionals as a comprehensive training program. It is a source of information for educators who have children with autism and related conditions in their classes. It can also be used as a training guide for paraprofessionals and support staff in the performance of their duties.

Melding: A Partner Teacher's Guide to Working with Para educators Who Support Students with Disabilities

MELDING was developed to be as user-friendly as possible for the busy partner teacher. Only the key steps to facilitating partner teacher and par educator relationships have been included.

Para Educators: Lifelines in the Classroom:

- Training Module 1 – Defining the Role of the Para educator
- Training Module 2 – Celebrating Similarities
- Training Module 3 – The IEP Process – The Role of the Para educator
- Training Module 4 – Supporting the Instructional Process

Parent

Helping Your Preschool Child-English and Spanish

This booklet is for families and caregivers who want to help their preschool children to learn and develop the skills necessary for success in school and in life.

Practical Ideas for Parents

Provides information about learning to read and includes activities for you to use in helping your children become readers.

Tips Pamphlets for Parents

TIPS was designed as a resource for families to use in helping their children become competent and successful. We provide ideas related to home and family involvement, school performance, social skills and self-esteem, discipline and motivation, personal health and safety and independent living.

RTI

Getting Ready For RTI (CD)

RtI – FAQs

Straightforward answers to the most common questions from school administrators, teachers and parents

RTI Success

A one-stop resource for teachers, administrators, special educators and other support staff putting this innovative model into practice. Inside you will find:

- Step-by-step guidelines for administrators implementing RTI in a school or district
- Staff development tools, including a Power-Point presentation and reproducible forms
- Ready-to-use assessments and an Educational Profile for compiling student data
- A direct problem-solving process for making decisions about instruction in RTI meetings
- “What to Try When” charts useful in identifying appropriate instruction techniques
- 100+ teacher friendly, research-based strategies for targeting specific skill deficits
- Tools to differentiate instruction for diverse student needs across RTI’s tiers

RTI-Three Tiers of Behavior

This book offers a framework for a campus-designed plan for developing a strong RtI tool kit and resource library for all three tiers. It also includes the framework for campuses that design a special education , Tier 3 behavior support classroom as an intervention option.

The RTI Guide: Developing and Implementing a Model in Your Schools

The purpose of this manual is to introduce you to the concept of response to intervention (RTI) and to guide you in developing and implementing you own RTI model.

Speech and Other Related Services

Dreams Made Real Into the Mainstream – a resource for parents of children who are deaf are hard of hearing

This book and video will provide you with many answers and ideas. There are a number of resources listed here to get you started on a lifetime journey of learning and growing with your child.

An OT and SLP Team Approach – Sensory and Communication Strategies that Work

This book provides practical advice and workable strategies to treat dysfunction in sensory integration and communication disorders through an integrated approach. It demonstrates how an integrated team approach increases therapeutic effectiveness while maximizing the benefits of the available treatment resources.

Multi-Cultural Students with Special Language Needs – Practical Strategies for Assessment and Intervention

This book is written to help school professionals develop a better understanding of linguistically and culturally diverse students so that they can work effectively with children who have special learning needs.

Speech and Language Assessment for the Bilingual Handicapped

This book is designed to provide speech-language pathologists, bilingual education specialists, special education teachers and other members of the assessment team with information that will be useful in the speech and language assessment of children from bilingual backgrounds.

Techniques for Rebuilding and Improving Children's School Skills – TRICS for Written Communication

Writing is the primary tool students use to express their ideas and knowledge in school. When children have writing difficulties, school professionals and parents seek supports to help them improve their writing abilities. TRICS for Written Communication provides a resource for school professionals, child specialist, and parents involved in improving student's written communication.